EMORY DIVERSIFYING GRADUATE EDUCATION

At the Laney Graduate School, we strive to create and strengthen an inclusive, respectful, and intellectually challenging environment that embraces individual difference. We are committed to initiating, cultivating, and sustaining an academic community that engages diverse intellectual capacity and that values open dialogue, cooperation, shared responsibility, mutual respect, and cultural competence.

Key EDGE Initiatives

EDGE and its fellows and ambassadors are responsible for maintaining and sustaining initiatives focused on diversity. Many of the initiatives surround topics of:

- Enriching Community
- Developing Outreach Partnerships and Affiliations
- Creating an Inclusive Campus
- Recruiting Excellent Students from Diverse Backgrounds

PROGRAMS AND EVENTS

To attract and retain a diverse student body, we also focus on sustaining an inclusive community where students of diverse backgrounds feel welcome and respected. EDGE offers several opportunities for engagement:

- An Annual Diversity Reception
- Black Graduate Student Association
- Latino Graduate Student Association
- Out in Laney
- Forum series on mentoring for success, graduate student retention, faculty diversity, and social justice as an academic
- NIH-Funded Emory Initiative for Maximizing Student Development
- Laney's Centennial Scholars

Along with Other Affinity Groups like:

- Women in STEM
- POC in the Humanities
- POC in the Social Sciences
- POC in the Natural Sciences
